Holidays - guided and self guided

Here at Rustic Trails we have put together a collection of week long walking holidays for you to discover a little bit more about this secret corner of France. We mostly operate guided group holidays, and anyone can take part - whether you're single, a couple, or with friends, you're all welcome to join the group. It's a great way to meet like minded people, and a great way to see things you wouldn't otherwise find, because we've done the hard work and found the best walks, the best villages and markets, the best accommodation and the best food and drink.

If you prefer to do your own thing, try our self guided walking holidays - take advantage of our wealth of experience by using our detailed itineraries, and do as little or as much walking as you please, at a pace to suit you.

Drome Explorer - guided

Discover the amazing diversity of the Drome: stunning scenery and wonderful views, all taken at a relaxed pace with five guided day walks.

Wine and Walking - guided

During this very special week we combine leisurely walking with some very informal wine tasting. The chef pulls out all the stops, the wine cellar gets a beating, and we visit a couple of vineyards in the valley. You'll discover some interesting and excellent wines, and some great walking.

Autumn Delights - guided

After the blistering heat of summer, autumn is a delightful time for walking and exploring. We visit some lovely locations off the beaten track; five days of easy walking.
