- Walks of all grades, allowing complete flexibility and freedom to go as you please at your own pace.
- Provencale towns, ancient villages and busy markets.
- Luxurious accommodation with private swimming pool.
- Delicious home cooked cuisine, and a broad selection of superb local wines.
- Flexible packages - choose your start date, length of stay and number of meals to suit you.

Introduction

You have to visit this secret corner of France to fully understand what makes it so special, it offers a wonderful combination of memorable walking, warm and sunny climate, and delicious food and drink. And the way of life here hasn't really changed, it's gentle people are happy and long lived.

We are perfectly placed to explore the diverse and beautiful regions to our north and south - the Vercors National Park offers alpine walking, wild flowers, birds and other wildlife, set against beautiful peaks, while Drome Provencale offers rolling hills and fields of lavender, sunflowers, olive trees and vines.

Together with our qualified mountain guide, we have compiled a comprehensive collection of day walks based on years of walking in the region. There are many walks, covering all levels of difficulty, and all within easy reach of your base. You can select your areas of interest and walking grade, and rely on our experience to ensure you get the most out of your self guided holiday.

Itineraries, walking notes, maps

Please refer to the appendix attached for a sample list of the walks for which we supply detailed itineraries, notes and maps.

As well as supplying walking itineraries, we have extensive knowledge of local markets, cheese and wine producers, places of historical interest and other tips for getting the most from your stay.

Practical information

What to bring

In addition to your usual clothes, you will need the following:-

- Lightweight walking boots with good ankle support
- Waterproof / windproof jacket
- Sun hat and sun cream
- Water bottle
- Day rucksack (for your belongings and picnic lunch)
- Walking poles if you like to use them.

Passports

All nationalities require a full passport that must be valid for 6 months beyond the intended length of stay. It is your responsibility to have the correct personal documents.
